

Steve W. Lee

January 2, 2013

Steve W. Lee, 60 of New Castle passed away Wednesday, January 2, 2013.

He was preceded in death by his wife Debra Lee; son Eric Lee; and parents Carl and Ella Mae Lee.

He is survived by son Nathan Lee; daughter Jessie Lee and fiancé James Smith; 2 grandchildren; sister Carolyn Dunkle; nephews Robbie and Kevin; niece Sara; and friends Frieda, the Brizendine family and the Lee family.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date for friends and family.

Donations may be made to Paitsel Funeral Home to help with funeral expenses.

Comments

“ We got to know Steve through Ella Mae(My Best Friend) Steve loved to party and we had some good times. We liked to visit Steve and Ella Mae and will always have good memories of those times.

Daisy - January 07, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ In my post, I omitted the other family names by typo. Our sympathy goes to Nathan, Jessie, Carolyn, Robbie, Kevin, Sara, Freda, the Brizendines and all who knew and loved Steve. Love and peace, Kelly and Bill.

Kelly Carr Tiller - January 06, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Sending our sympathy to Nathan and Sara and all who knew and loved Steve. I will always remember the phone calls he made to me after my mother's death (his aunt). He called me many nights just to check on me and share memories of her. That extension of love will remain with me. Rest in Peace Steve. I know you must be experiencing a wonderful reunion with your beloved family in Heaven. Kelly and Bill.

Kelly Carr Tiller - January 06, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I have known Steve for as long as I have been in the Carr family, which was when I was 17...now 56. Steve was a wonderfully kind person and always made Barry and I laugh. He will be missed but Heaven has gained a good soul. prayers of peace and love for all the family.

Toni Carr - January 06, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I am sincerely sorry to hear about Steve's passing and I send my heartfelt condolences to his family and other loved ones. . It has been 20 years or more since I last saw Steve and I truly regret that I did not take the time to visit Steve and re-new an old friendship. Sometimes in the day to day rush to live your life a person fails to assign the right priorities to thier " to do" list's. Now Steve is gone and I will never be able to say thanks for the memories and your freindship.

I will always remeber Steve as a true friend and I am sincerely sorry that neither of us took the time to rekindle our friendship. I met Steve in 1970 when he stopped on Route 779 to offer a complete stranger roadside assistance simply because he was that kind of person.

I am using this message board to send Steve my brotherly love and wish him all the best on his new journey; hopefully, strolling down the streets paved of gold.

stephen fischer - January 05, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ We love you and will miss you.

Michael and Melanie Brizendine - January 05, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Rest in peace, my Friend

Janet Gray Pagans - January 05, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I was blessed to have Steve as a close friend for most of my life. Steve was the most gentle man I know, he never had anything bad to say about anyone. Steve was a nature lover who could tell you which tree would bud first in spring and which would turn first in fall. He was a simple man and was content with his life, which is not something everyone can say. He had a wonderful sense of humor and wit which is one of the things I loved about him - he made me laugh. Steve had a personal relationship with God and a strong faith. I will miss him so much but look forward to seeing him again some day on the other side. Rest in peace my friend!

Freda Gray Horn - January 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ When I think of Steve Lee I will always remember a kind, gentle person, with such an easy going pace. You always had such a faith in God, now is your reward. You were indeed a sweet soul. Rest in peace my friend.

Carrie Leaver - January 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ We, the staff at Paitzel Funeral Home are deeply sorry for your loss.

Paitzel Funeral Home Jan - January 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM