“ There was no time to say goodbye, precious cousin, but I want you to know that you have always been an inspiration to all of us. Our hearts are collectively and individually broken in various degrees of grief, but we celebrate your faithful, victorious, and successful life, as you have done so excellently all of those things that are truly important and eternal. You have laid up treasures for yourself and your family in heaven, and now you deserve to enjoy them. We will miss you so much that it will take time to heal from having you snatched so suddenly from the arms of our family, but we promise to carry on your legacy by serving others all around us, with the love of Christ in our hearts. Having you in our big, close, family has blessed all of us, and has made us each a better person. We thank God for giving you to us for a time, and we will meet you again to celebrate with Jesus in Heaven. (Love, your cousin Terry Bruffey Toren)

“ A genuine example of a humble, loving Christian. She was such a positive influence in my life. She was a light that helped me see my Way. I know the Lord will sit her down, face-to-face and explain her worthiness and say "well done, my good and faithful servant".

Although I didn't know Carole, I have the pleasure of knowing her daughter Lindsay. Knowing Lindsay and how kind and caring she is, I feel sure that her mother was the same type of person. I know she will be missed and her family must be heart broken. My prayers and thoughts are with all of her family and friends. Rest in peace in God's arms.

“ Sorrow and joy stood watching as family and friends passed by. Sorrow knew what they were going through from the tears that fell from their eyes. Joy was not out of place here, sent from heaven above. Sorrow and joy were made for this time, born of the Father's love. Sorrow will stay for a short time when her absence is felt day by day. But joy will be there in memories clear, of a life that will not pass away. Sorrow may last for a season, a night that seems never to end, but joy always comes in the morning when we think of where she is. Safe in the arms of the Savior, safe by the side of the Lord. Sorrow no more a companion as she lives in the joy of the Lord.

“ My sincere sympathy to Carole's family. I had the pleasure of working with her years ago, and have enjoyed knowing her. Carole was an inspiration to me and to many. A great loss for those left to cherish her memory, but rejoicing as she entered her home with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“ I met Carole thru working together at cbec and have continued to have a relationship with her thru rec basketball. Everywhere she went she always had a huge smile on her face and greeted everyone when she walked in a room. She always walked in her faith and was a strong believer in the Lord. I have had conversations with her over the years about asking for prayers and she never skipped a beat. I am truly honored to have known this woman and will carry many memories of her in my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ My heart is sad but I only see Carole's smile. What an incredibly wonderful lady!! I will miss her grace and humor, the deep Spiritual connection she shared so freely with me and so many others. Everything was filled with joy when Carole stepped in the room. Faith, love and joy.....that's her. God bless you all as you learn to walk this life without her here. I take much comfort knowing she is rejoicing with the Saints!!! Yay God!! De Colores Carole, I know the walls of Heaven are too beautiful to compare!!

“ I have only known Carole for a short period of time through Emmaus but she made me feel as if we had known each other for a lifetime when I volunteered with her in the Prayer Room at last year's girls Chrysalis walk. She was so down to earth, welcoming and gave such a wonderful verbal testimony of her Christian life and she actually walked the Christian walk, not just talked the talk. I will miss the love and friendship she gave me and I am so blessed that God put her in my life, even for such a short time.

“ What a blessed inspiration Carole was to all who knew her. Her Faith shined so brightly even through the obstacles that this world brought her way. Her eyes were always fixed on Jesus & her eternal home. Our lives were all the richer for knowing her. The bell rang & another beautiful child of God received her wings. Hugs, love and prayers to the entire Kesler family. #herooftthefaith #uwerethewindbeneathwings

“Eleanor Roosevelt said "Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints on your heart". Carole, you were one of those people. No doubt, you left footprints on a lot of hearts. You certainly did on mine. From time to time I would call Carole and ask for her to add someone to her prayer list. I would tell her that I knew she had a direct line to the Lord. She would laugh and say that we all had the same line, we just had to use it. When God met her at the gate, I feel sure He told her she kept him very busy. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
