“ While words are never enough to say I am so sorry for your loss...may God comfort all of the Family beyond human understanding. Charles was the best Deputy Sheriff ever and a dear friend. When there were dances at Camp Mitchell, Charles was like a Beacon of Light too make sure we never left if we had to much too drink. We were a rowdy bunch but not once did he judge us but guided as a Father would. He loved his family, his job, everyone!! I am at loss for words for such a Wonderful family.
