

Karen Amanda Wallace Looney

August 18, 1965 - July 9, 2013

Karen Amanda Wallace Looney, 47, of Newcastle VA, went to meet her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ face to face the afternoon of Tuesday, July 9th. Karen was born August 18th, 1965 and after a long hard fight with cancer, passed peacefully at her home in the beautiful Sinking Creek Valley

Karen was preceded in death by her father Robert "Buckshot" Wallace and sister-in-law Kristin Wallace. She is survived by her husband Jim, son Jonathan, mother Hope, brothers Jeffery and Travis Wallace, father and mother-in-law Ronnie and Helen Looney, brother-in-laws David Looney and Mike Looney, sister-in-laws Laura Wallace, Becky and Karen Looney, 4 nephews, 4 nieces, special friends Katrina Milton and Vanessa Parks.

Karen was an active member of Craig Valley Baptist church, a key supporter of the Craig County Cancer Support group and was incredibly gifted working with children. Regardless of where she was serving, her positive attitude, strength and compassion were quickly evident. Karen's passions were her family, children and ministering to those in need.

The family will receive visitors Saturday, July 13th at Grace Baptist Church from 11:00 a.m. till 12:45 p.m. with a Memorial Service following at 1:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made in Karen's memory to the Craig County Cancer Support group at 12951 Cumberland Gap Rd., Newcastle, VA, 24127. www.paitselfh.com

“ Karen and I had many fond memories at VWCC. We became quite good friends while going there. I was even in her wedding. Then I moved to Chesapeake and Puerto Rico and we lost touch. I ran into her a few years back and we said we would get in tuch and never did. I am so sorry for the families loss and yes she was the best with children.

“ Jim, Jonathan and family: I am so sorry for the loss of Karen. She was one of the most sweetest, caring and kindest people I have ever had the priveledge of knowing. May God give you all peace and comfort in the days ahead. Heaven gained a beautiful angel when Karen was called home and you guys have the priveledge of saying that she is your guardian angel. I will keep you in my prayers.
