“ I am very sorry to hear about LaDona, she was a friend I met at Radford University in our Teaching Writing class. LaDona had a kind heart and was always encouraging and supportive during our time as students and later when I began as an English Teacher at New River Community College. The impression she made on me lasted over the years and she will be missed. LaDona had the shine as I like to call it and was quite a special spirit, she is unforgettable.

“ To the family Stossel - my deepest condolences. So sad to hear the news. It was always a happiness to have you all, not least LaDona, in the crowd for my shows, in a huge radius around Roanoke. Words carry little weight at times like these, but I'll be thinking of you all, raising a glass for her, tonight on the road. All the best.
