“ Kristen, I am so sorry to hear about Maddison. I read your posts and seen her pictures on facebook when you posted them. I know it may not all make sense right now but God chose you to be this little angels mommy for a reason. Don't think of it as "Good bye" but as "See you later". You will get to see her beautiful face again one day and she will be right there waiting for you. She knew that you loved her and she has already shown you in several ways that she loves you too. From the I Love You finger sign to the cloud that you seen while you were driving. I'm sure your little angel will continue to send you signs when she knows that you will need to see them most, just watch for them. You and the boys have a precious guardian angel watching over you now and I pray that you find peace and comfort in knowing that!!!
