“ Madeline was a grandmother to my brother Gabe, cousin Nicole, and myself. Carl Bush was our grandfather. She took such great care of him and I will always be grateful to her for that. Nobody could cook a better Sunday lunch than she could. She made sure there was always macaroni and cheese whenever we came to visit. I had the honor of her and Don attending my wedding years ago. That meant so much to me. She was the kindest person and we will miss her greatly.
