“ What a wonderful, beautiful person God has taken from each of you. My sympathy goes out to all of Melissa's family--my love and prayers are with you all. She is definitely an "angel" watching over all of you. I can still remember the first time I baby-sat her--she was 3--I was 12--she looked like a doll, so cute and pretty in her little dress. The years flew by and then she started cutting my hair--she gave me my first "curly perm" in the late 80s'-I loved it. I was so proud of her when she had her own shop, bought her house. Melissa had so much ambition, so much determination and so much courage. She was such a hard working girl. She loved her family. She was so sweet, I loved her smile and laugh. Again I'm truly sorry for your loss. Her suffering days are over--she's in the best hands ever now--GOD's hands. Always cherish your memories-she will be in your hearts forever. Every time you see a butterfly-- always think of her, and her new journey she's on because the best is yet to come for her-- she's "Heaven-bound". So to: Tina, Trina, Carmen, Hannah, Samantha, Sammy, Pam, Morgan, Patrick and all the other family members I pray that God will comfort each of you during this time and for all the days ahead. GOD BLESS YOU ALL
