“ My heart was saddened by the loss of Norma. She had such an upbeat and vibrant personality and never seemed to meet a stranger. Her welcoming smile and willingness to talk to anyone who cared to or needed to talk made her such a wonderful woman. Our loss on Earth has allowed another angel to enter heaven. Rest well Norma until we meet again!!

“ I am very saddened by this horrible news and I can see her beautiful smile in my head! We shared the same birthday to many memories of her when I was young! Such a sad loss to soon! God bless and I'm praying for her children and grandkids may peace be with you all! Didn't see her often but she will be greatly missed! God has a new angel and her and her mom are I'm sure dancing a jig in heaven together!

“ I will always remember how much I loved hearing Norma giggle. She was so much fun to be around. I stayed with Perry and Norma when we went to VA for our grandparents 50th anniversary. Christie was just a baby then and I was pregnant with my son. We talked so much during that time and I will always cherish those memories. Love, Mary Ann

“ Norma was a very nice person and all who knew her loved her. So friendly and never met a stranger she didn't like. Always helpful though you knew she had her own problems. I will miss seeing and talking with her at the store. Her employee to customer relationship will be greatly missed. It's friendly and caring people like Norma that make any business prosperous. Lynne and I will always remember you for putting others before yourself!
