“ A sweet, gentle soul has left our presence but there is an imprint of Robby Cole left on each person's heart that knew him. I am thankful to have counted him as family and a friend. He was loving, kind, generous, a hard worker, a humble man with a servant's heart. He had an open door policy at his home for all who needed a haven or just a place to hang out. He was a special uncle to Holly and Kelly. He loved them like his own and they loved him back unconditionally.
Thank you, Robby, for just being you. We will miss you.
My heartfelt condolences to Sharon, Jared, Kayla, Cody and the extended Cole family.

“ My heart goes out to you all 😭💙 Praying for comfort for you all. One of my memories of Robby was while Donnie Goodman was still living. We would all go out for a ride and Robby always took us on all the curvy back roads and I would get so sick. He just thought it was funny. My kids loved him. They called him Jive Turkey, don't know why but it stuck 😊
He will be missed. 🙏💙

“ My deepest condolences to Sharon, Jared and the entire Cole family. I am so glad I had the privilege of meeting Robby! He was a humble, quiet, and friendly person. He and Sharon was a special couple. Even though I didn't see Robby often, one thing that stood out to me was the great love he had for his family. It was evident!! I am praying that Robby's family will find comfort & peace now & in the days to come. And Sharon & Jared, I love you and I am so very sorry for your great loss. The world has lost one of the "Good" guys!!
