“ Thank you Dad for all your guidance, love, support, your plumbing assistance, your babysitting services for both your granddaughter and your granddog Copper and Grandcat-Skittles, to name a few. You were the best Dad and the perfect Dad to me. Thanks for all the funny memories and good time. I will always love you.

“ Mitch was a true friend and a humble man.He once mowed my lawn all summer while I was recovering from 2 hip replacements. And being a true friend he refused to take any money for gas or labor. There can not be a better friend indeed. Mitch will always be missed and always in my thoughts.Rest in peace my wonderful friend.
