“ I had the pleasure of meeting Miss Ruth and her dog child, Baron, only one time and I was so taken with both of them. She was so nice and you could well see the love she and Baron had for each other. I wish I could have had the honor of knowing Miss Ruth and Baron a lot longer. She was truly a lovely woman. “ Ruth was a special friend from the first time I met her. I took care of her dog family and I know how much they meant to her. She always tried to have an upbeat attitude no matter what the situation. She always reminded me so much of my own mother... living independently and spiritedly during her last years. Wish I had known her when she was younger.

When she was younger, she was a very mean woman. She was my first mother-in-law, and her son liked to beat me up.
