“ Amy came home often telling funny stories that Scott had told during her family's visits with Scott and Betty. Scott and Betty have been blessed with four children and ten grandchildren. I remember Scott just sitting and watching his grandchildren with a smile and a look of pride on his face. I would like to express my sincere regrets concerning Scott's death although I feel his passing was a blessing due to the amount of pain and distress he was experiencing. I feel in my heart that Scott now is completely well and in a much better place.
